Common Stock

Holders of the Company's Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share on all matters submitted to a shareholder vote. Holders of Common Stock do not have cumulative voting rights. Therefore, holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock voting for the election of directors can elect all of the directors. A vote by the holders of a majority of the Company's outstanding shares is required to effectuate certain fundamental corporate changes such as liquidation, merger or an amendment to the Company's Articles of Incorporation.

Holders of the Company's Common Stock are entitled to share in all dividends that the Board, in its discretion, declares from legally available funds. In the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up, each outstanding share entitles its holder to participate pro rata in all assets that remain after payment of liabilities and after providing for each class of stock, if any, having preference over the Common Stock. Conversely, if multiple stockholders sharing an address receive multiple Information Statements and wish to receive only one, such stockholders can notify us at the address set forth above.

Information Regarding the Consent Actions

The Board determined that an amendment to the Bylaws of the Company, is in the Company's and our stockholders' best interests. More specifically, the Bylaws Amendment reduced the quorum for stockholder meetings from a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the Company (the "Current Quorum") to thirty-three-and-one-third percent (33 1/3%) of the outstanding voting securities of the Company (the "New Quorum"). The Board has adopted and declared advisable the Bylaws Amendment, which is necessary in order to implement the New Quorum.

General

A quorum is the minimum number of voting power that must be present in person or by proxy at a stockholder meeting in order for that meeting to be validly held. It is a requirement under Florida law that a company specify its quorum for its stockholder meetings by defining the proportion of the voting power that constitutes a quorum in its articles of incorporation or bylaws.

Our Bylaws provide that the Current Quorum for a meeting of the Company's stockholders is participation of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy. Under Florida law, Nasdaq and NYSE Stock Market Rules the minimum quorum requirement is 33 1/3%. Our Current Quorum is above the minimum quorum requirement under law.

We may have difficulties reaching our Current Quorum for our stockholder meetings in a timely manner. If we do not achieve our Current Quorum by the originally scheduled meeting dates, then we would have to adjourn the meeting for some period to allow us to solicit further proxies from our stockholders in order to reach the Current Quorum and validly hold the meeting of stockholders. Thus, lowering the quorum threshold will enable the Company to avoid stalled or deadlocked business, will bring the bylaws into closer alignment with Wyoming statutory law and will better accommodate the Company's geographically dispersed investor based.

Reasons for the Bylaws Amendment

The Board believes that a reduction in the Current Quorum, for any future stockholder meetings, to the New Quorum, and the Bylaws Amendment to make this change, is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. By adopting the Bylaws Amendment:

- we will reduce the risk of our failing to achieve the required quorum for any stockholder meetings, which failure would require us to adjourn such meetings and therefore cause us to incur additional costs, such as additional virtual meeting host costs and possibly hiring proxy solicitors, and suffer disruptions to our business; and
- we believe that the New Quorum is high enough to ensure that a broad range of stockholders are present at a stockholder meeting in person or by proxy.

Accordingly, the Board has adopted and declared advisable the Bylaws Amendment. The text of the Amendment to the Company's Bylaws is included as Annex A to this Information Statement.

Effectiveness of the Bylaws Amendment

The Bylaws Amendment will become effective upon the expiration of the 40-day period commencing on the date of mailing of this Information Statement to our stockholders as required under Rule 14c-2 and Rule 14a-16 promulgated under the Exchange Act

Pursuant to the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of BILI Social International, Inc., a Florida corporation (the "Corporation"), and pursuant to the provisions of the Florida Business Corporation Act, the Bylaws are hereby amended as follows:

1. Amend the Bylaws to replace any references to the Corporation's former name, "Allied Energy, Inc.", to the Corporation's current name "BILI Social International, Inc." to reflect the change of name completed in 2026.
2. Article II, Section F of the Bylaws is hereby amended and restated in its entirety to provide as follows:

"Section F. Quorum. Thirty-three and one-third percent (33 1/3%) of the stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Stockholders for the transaction of business except as otherwise expressly required by statute or by the Articles of Incorporation. At such adjourned meeting, at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified. If after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each Shareholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting."
